Subject: Request for immediate action against mob intimidation near EFLU, Hyderabad

Respected Commissioner Sajjanar garu,

The Centre for Liberty strongly condemns the recent incident of mob intimidation targeting Joshyyettan's Kerala Thattukada, a restaurant located near the English and Foreign Languages University (EFLU) in Hyderabad. According to multiple reports, individuals linked to self-styled “cow-protection” groups, allegedly associated with the Bajrang Dal and Vishva Hindu Parishad (VHP), were involved in the act of intimidation and vandalism.

The incident, reportedly triggered by the restaurant serving beef dishes, represents a serious breach of law and order. Such acts of mob coercion violate citizens’ constitutional rights to liberty, property, and lawful enterprise, and they endanger communal peace in the city.

It is important to note that the sale and serving of beef (from ox) and buffalo meat are legal under Telangana state regulations, and restaurants operating in accordance with the law deserve full protection from harassment or violence by unlawful elements.

We respectfully urge the Hyderabad City Police to:

1. Conduct a prompt and transparent investigation into the incident, identifying and prosecuting those responsible for the mob attack.
2. Provide protection and reassurance to the affected restaurant owners, workers, and nearby business establishments.
3. Issue clear instructions to all police stations to prevent similar instances of vigilantism or intimidation.
4. Reaffirm Hyderabad Police's commitment to upholding constitutional freedoms and ensuring that the city remains a safe space for all communities and lawful businesses.

We believe that decisive police action in this case will reaffirm public trust and demonstrate that Hyderabad will not tolerate mob rule or intimidation in any form.
